THIS MATTER is before the Court sua sponte as to the status of this case. Plaintiff filed a Settlement Agreement Notice on July 1, 2022, (Doc. No. 30), wherein Plaintiff asserts “the parties have entered into a settlement agreement that resolves all matters between the parties in this action”. (Doc. No. 30, p. 1). This matter, however, is docketed for trial beginning July 11, 2022, and nothing in the motion sought a stay or continuance of any other deadlines, including trial. Although it appears the parties will finalize the settlement process, the Court finds no sufficient basis under the current record to sua sponte stay deadlines or continue trial.

Accordingly, counsel is hereby advised they are expected to appear for: (1) docket call at 9:00 a.m. on July 11, 2022; and (2) a pretrial conference immediately following docket call. (See Doc. No. 29). Of course, the parties can file their Stipulation of Dismissal any time, including prior to docket call, at which time the Court will remove this case from the trial calendar and terminate the deadlines set forth herein.<sup>1</sup>

Whenever a civil action scheduled for a jury trial is settled or otherwise disposed of in advance of the actual trial, the Court may assess all jurors’ costs (including Marshal’s fees, mileage reimbursement, and per diem fees) equally against the parties or otherwise may determine appropriate assessments, unless the Clerk’s office is notified at least one (1) full business day prior

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the deadlines in this matter will remain as previously set, beginning with docket call at 9:00 a.m. on July 11, 2022.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed: July 6, 2022

Frank D. Whitney
United States District Judge

to the date on which the action is scheduled for trial or the parties establish good cause why the Court should not assess jury costs against them.
(Doc. No. 6, p. 14). The stipulation of dismissal, if filed on July 8, 2022, must therefore be filed no later than 11:00 a.m. that day to give the Clerk of Court sufficient time during the business day to advise the jurors who are selected that they need not appear for trial on July 11, 2022.
